

Reconstructionist English Text Literal Translation

On the number day of month, in the year , in this location, the bride First and Last Name and the groom First and Last Name entered into this Covenant of Marriage. We hereby pledge to honor, respect and support each other throughout our life together. We shall endeavor to be open and honest, understanding and accepting, loving and forgiving and loyal to ourselves and to one another. We hereby promise to work together to build a warm strong home full of joy. We vow to honor each other's family traditions and values. We shall respect each other's uniqueness and help one another to grow to our fullest potential. We will always comfort and support each other through life's sorrows and joys.